If you are applying for work which brings you into contact with children, young people or vulnerable adults or for certain positions within legal and financial fields you may be required to undergo an enhanced DBS criminal record check before taking up your role. This check will include details of convictions, cautions, reprimands and warnings which you may have, even if they are regarded as 'spent' under the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974. You must also (where appropriate) let us know of any prosecutions pending against you.

Do you have a criminal record as above? Failure to disclose this information could result in your dismissal or disciplinary action by the Council.
